Section III: Special Questions (W.A.V.E. LLC)

The W.A.V.E. LLC is geared to students who have a passion for the water. Using the following prompts, please explain why you are interested in participating in this program.

4. Please describe your experience with boats or waterborne vessel maintenance and/or operation.

5. If you were a boat, what kind of boat would you be, and why? (Please feel free to use any and all resources at your disposal to illustrate the passion in your answer.)

Section IV: Community Expectations and Requirements

As a W.A.V.E. LLC Member, I understand my responsibilities are as follows:

- Meet all requirements necessary to remain enrolled at Texas A&M University at Galveston.
- Participate and contribute to events planned for your Living Learning Community.
 - Attend designated Living Learning Meetings
 - Successfully enroll in and complete the LLC class (if a course is linked)
 - Complete program assessments in the fall and spring
- I will respect my fellow LLC members, Community Leaders, TAMUG staff, faculty members, community members, and others I meet during this experience.
- I will act with integrity in everything that is done for the community and will represent TAMUG LLCs with courtesy & professionalism.
- I will be willing to collaborate with others as well as be proactive in helping the community reach its goals.
- I will be actively involved in my community's activities, meetings, programs, events, etc.
- Exercise civility in all of my communications.
- I will contribute to an environment where learning can flourish.
- I agree that my Housing assignment is contingent upon meeting the expectations of the Living Learning Community in which I have accepted membership. Residence Life has the right to move me to another room and/or residence hall if I fail to meet all of these expectations.

I understand if I am accepted into the LLC, I must abide by all academic and social requirements of the program, as well as university policies and procedures. Some of TAMUG's Living Learning Communities may be restricted to students who are enrolled in specific academic majors or first-semester academic courses. My name typed below and submission of my application is an indication of my commitment to comply with all the stated program requirements.
