Committee Charge

The Diving Advisory and Resource Committee (DARC) is an administrative committee, appointed by the TAMUG Vice President Academic Affairs or his/her representative, to provide guidance to the diving program and dive operations for each academic year. Prior to the start of each academic year the Vice President Academic Affairs or his/her representative will issue requests to the qualified personnel selected to serve for the subsequent year. The TAMUG Vice President Academic Affairs, or his/her representative, may appoint advisors and consultants to the Diving Advisory and Resource Committee as appropriate. The Diving Advisory and Resource Committee (DARC) serves in an advisory capacity for all faculty, staff, and student involvement in the continuing evaluation and development of the Diving Operation, Training, Education and Safety Program.
