New Graduate Student Arrival Checklist: Orientation

What to Bring to Orientation:

- For those needing to park on campus: Please display your hangtag parking permit properly during Orientation. You can purchase an annual student parking permit during the month of August by visiting http://transport.tamu.edu. To determine where to park on campus, please see “Parking and Check-In” section below.
- Comfortable, casual shoes and clothing – It will be hot outside, but bring a light jacket as buildings can be cold.
- Pen and paper
- For Payroll - Social security card and driver’s license for those needing to be on payroll – these documents must be originals. No copies are allowed. For proper identification for international students, please check with the Graduate Studies Office prior to Orientation by emailing gradstudies@tamug.edu.
- Make sure you know your UIN and Howdy log-in (i.e. Net-ID)

Parking and Check-In:

Orientation Check-In occurs from 8:30 AM – 9:00 AM at the Mary Moody Northen Building Lobby (Building 3004) on the Mitchell Campus. For directions to get to the Mitchell Campus, please visit http://www.rwd.tamug.edu/grad/visit/Maps_and_Directions.html. With your student parking permit, you have two suggested options for parking.
- Option 1: Proceed to the Main Entrance and park in the red lot closest to Building 3007.
- Option 2: Pass the Main Entrance and proceed to the North Entrance by making a right on Texas Clipper Road. Take the first right and park in the red student parking lot in front of Building 3004.
