PROBATIONARY HONORS ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENT

GUIDELINES

- Probationary eligibility is granted to a student when it is mathematically possible for the student to bring his/her cumulative GRP to the minimum 3.5 requirement in ONE semester.
- In reviewing this request, the Texas A&M University at Galveston Honors Program office will consider the following issues:
  1) Has the student identified why his/her Texas A&M cumulative GPR has fallen below 3.5 for two semesters?
  2) Has the student explained what s/he will do to raise that cumulative GPR to a 3.5 or higher by the end of the current semester?
  3) Is the student making good progress toward graduating with an honors distinction?
- Probation allows the student to remain in the Honors program, but DOES NOT allow them to take any Honor credit hours and they WILL NOT be able to register early for the next semester.
- If a student is on probation and is unable to fulfill the minimum 3.5 GRP requirement, the student’s Honor status will be reevaluated.

DEADLINE

The deadline to submit a COMPLETED “Probationary Honors Eligibility Requirement” form to the University’s Honors Program office is on the 15th class day.

State law requires that you be informed of the following: (1) you are entitled to request to be informed about the information about yourself collected by use of this form (with a few exceptions as provided by law); (2) you are entitled to receive and review that information; and (3) you are entitled to have the information corrected at no charge to you.

Please read and sign the following statement: My cumulative GPR has fallen below a 3.5 for two semesters; therefore I am requesting probationary Honors eligibility to remain in the Honors Program. I understand that this is my last opportunity I can request to waive the 3.5 GPR requirement for my Honors status. If I do not raise my GPR to the minimum requirement in the allotted time, I understand that I will not be able to remain in Honors. I understand that this probationary request must be on file in the Honors Program office prior to the 15th class day.
