

Brandon Hill, MARS

Investigation into Neritic Water Conditions as Primary Driver of Vegetative Fragmentation Rates of Sargassum Naitans and Sargassum Fluitans

More than 500 nutrient level tests have been conducted this summer using this YSI 9500 Spectrophotometer. The data collected is helping to establish a nutrient baseline for the Galveston coastal waters.