General Application

Section II: LLC Open Response questions (required for ALL LLC applicants)
Please keep your response to each question at 300 words or less.

1. Why do you want to be a part of the Living Learning Community?
2. What does it mean to be part of a community?
3. What do you expect to contribute to the LLC? (Please use examples of past leadership, honors, awards, scholarships, extra-curricular activities in which you have participated, volunteer work, living experiences, study abroad, etc.)
4. For returning students ONLY: Do you have thoughts on how to improve this community? How can your role as a returning student be of value to the overall community?

Section III: Special Questions (provide answers for each LLC that you are interested in)

W.A.V.E. LLC: this LLC is geared to students who have a passion for the water. Using the following prompts, please explain why you are interested in participating in this program.

1. Please describe your experience with boats or waterborne vessel maintenance and/or operation.
2. If you were a boat, what kind of boat would you be, and why? (Please feel free to use any and all resources at your disposal to illustrate the passion in your answer.)

LEAD LLC: this LLC is for students who wish to assess their leadership skills, learn about their strengths, and develop said skills for a lifestyle of improving the world.

1. Please describe your experience in leadership? What have you done? What do you wish you had done?
2. Pick your favorite villain (Lex Luthor, Cruella DeVil, Plankton, etc.) Were they a leader? How so? How were they not? What makes up a leader, in your mind?

S.E.A. LLC: this LLC is geared to students who have a passion for diving and outdoor activities. Using the following prompts, please explain why you are interested in participating in this program.

1. Will diving influence your future career? If so How?
2. If you could dive anywhere in the world, where would you dive and why?
3. Who is your diving hero? Why do you look up to this person?

General Application

Section IV: Community Expectations and Requirements
As an LLC Member, I understand my responsibilities are as follows:

- Meet all requirements necessary to remain enrolled at Texas A&M University at Galveston.
- I will obey all University Student Rules and Residence Hall Rules.
- I will conduct my personal behavior both on and off campus in a lawful manner with integrity and maturity.
- Participate and contribute to events planned for your Living Learning Community.
  - Attend designated Living Learning Meetings
  - Successfully enroll in and complete the LLC class (if a course is linked)
  - Complete program assessments in the fall and spring
- I will respect my fellow LLC members, Community Leaders, TAMUG staff, faculty members, community members, and others I meet during this experience.
- I will act with integrity in everything that is done for the community and will represent TAMUG LLCs with courtesy & professionalism.
- I will be willing to collaborate with others as well as be proactive in helping the community reach its goals.
- I will be actively involved in my community's activities, meetings, programs, events, etc.
- Exercise civility in all of my communications.
- I will contribute to an environment where learning can flourish.
- I agree that my Housing assignment is contingent upon meeting the expectations of the Living Learning Community in which I have accepted membership. Residence Life has the right to move me to another room and/or residence hall if I fail to meet all of these expectations.

I understand if I am accepted into the LLC, I must abide by all academic and social requirements of the program, as well as university policies and procedures. Failure to abide by these expectations and requirements in full or in part may result in my removal from the community. Some of TAMUG’s Living Learning Communities may be restricted to students who are enrolled in specific academic majors or first-semester academic courses. My name typed below and submission of my application is an indication of my commitment to comply with all the stated program requirements.
