Responsible VP Dr. William Seitz

Committee Charge

The Assessment Council is responsible for advising the Vice President and CEO through the Associate Vice President of Academic Affairs on a broad range of assessment initiatives. The committee will maintain communication and compliance with the TAMU Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP) Council acting as a college level council. The QEP process is an integral function of the SACS accreditation to demonstrate the institution’s commitment to “enhancing the quality of programs and service within the context of their missions, resources, and capacities, and to create an environment in which teaching, public service, research and learning occur. Furthermore, the TAMUG Assessment Council is charged with general oversight of the TAMUG institutional effectiveness process including appropriate documentation and dissemination of the Galveston processes.

 25 2011-2012 Honor Council

Responsible VP Mr. Grant Shallenberger

Committee Charge

It is the Mission of the Galveston Aggie Honor System Office to serve as a centralized system established to respond fairly to academic violations of the Aggie Code of Honor. Members of the honor council may serve as case investigators, panel members and appeal panel members involving students alleged to have violated the honor system rules. Case investigators, upon investigating an alleged infraction, advise the Assistant Vice President of Student Affairs and Auxiliary Services (or his/her designee) on whether enough evidence exists to support a charge against the involved student of violating honor system rules and, subsequently, an honor council hearing. Panel members are convened in an administrative hearing to hear testimony, decide whether the involved are not responsible or responsible for the alleged infraction and, if found responsible, to determine appropriate sanctions. Appeal panel members are convened to hear an appeal from a student found responsible for violating the honor system rules, if an appeal is filed.

Committee Charge

It is the Mission of the Galveston Aggie Honor System Office to serve as a centralized system established to respond fairly to academic violations of the Aggie Code of Honor. Members of the honor council may serve as case investigators, panel members and appeal panel members involving students alleged to have violated the honor system rules. Case investigators, upon investigating an alleged infraction, advise the Assistant Vice President of Student Affairs and Auxiliary Services (or his/her designee) on whether enough evidence exists to support a charge against the involved student of violating honor system rules and, subsequently, an honor council hearing. Panel members are convened in an administrative hearing to hear testimony, decide whether the involved are not responsible or responsible for the alleged infraction and, if found responsible, to determine appropriate sanctions. Appeal panel members are convened to hear an appeal from a student found responsible for violating the honor system rules, if an appeal is filed.

The committee will review appropriate documentation submitted by students and make determinations regarding whether the requests made are for “reasonable accommodations” that should be afforded to the individual based upon the documentation. The committee may facilitate the routine processing of a request to the office of the Director of Counseling and/or designee and reserve the committee meetings to those decisions that are being appealed or for non-routine requests. The committee will be empowered to convene and make determinations regarding requests with any three members of the committee being present. DRC Committee members should be familiar with federal and state laws and university guidelines regarding disability issues and should make decisions consistent with best practices.
