

The Erma Lee and Luke Mooney Graduate Student Travel Grant

Research-related travel grants of $600 or more will be awarded annually to TAMU/TAMUG graduate students conducting marine-related research at the TAMUG campus and being advised by a TAMUG faculty member. Funds may be used for travel to attend a scientific meeting or a field site. Preference is given to poster or oral presentations and fieldwork. Travel must be to an off-campus (Galveston and College Station) location. Funds may be used for international travel. Grants are limited to one per year and may not be received in two consecutive academic years. Travel must occur within six months of the grant. Grants received by students not on A&M payroll may be considered taxable income. Funds are for travel expenses only (i.e. transportation, meals, lodging, and conference registration fees).

If funds are requested to support research activities, all compliance items must be completed prior to release of funds. For example, vertebrate animal research must have approved an AUP or a statement from IACUC that one is not required. Human subjects research, e.g., a questionnaire, would require IRB approval. More information on research compliance can be found at <http://rcb.tamu.edu/> or by contacting the Research and Graduate Studies Office.
