Repatriation: SUNY Maritime College assesses a repatriation fee when any member of the Ship's compliment is returned to the vessel's place of origin prior to completion of the term or their assignment. For this purpose, the definition of place of origin is the SUNY Maritime College campus located at 6 Pennyfield Avenue, Bronx NY 10465. The repatriation fee is to cover expenses incurred by SUNY Maritime College to return the person repatriated for cause to the place of origin during the course of the cruise. This fee is a SUNY Maritime College fee, exclusive of any other costs the individual may incur.

VETERANS' EDUCATIONAL BENEFITS

To utilize Veterans' Educational Benefits, you must request your benefit under the Status tab of your Financial Aid Portal in the current aid year (Summer 2022-2023). This will become available after you have registered for your summer Sea Term.

- Coursework must count towards your program. Allow 1-3 business days after course registration for Registrar's Office to confirm your degree evaluation.

Each benefit may apply differently.

- Hazlewood Exemption: covers the full cost of cruise.
- Ch. 30 and Ch. 35 benefits: paid at the full-time rate during the summer cruise period.
- Post 9/11 GI Bill monthly stipends: paid at the full-time rate
 - Covers cruise tuition/fees, except for the cost of meals aboard the ship, which must be paid by other means.

FINANCIAL AID ELIGIBILITY FOR SUMMER 2023

Annual Federal Loan Limits

Annual student loan eligibility is based on academic year. Summer 2023 is part of the 22-23 academic year. If you have utilized your maximum annual loan eligibility in the fall and spring semesters you may need to search for alternative funding for summer cruises such as Parent Plus Loan/Graduate Plus Loan, or Alternative Loan.

Enrollment Requirements

You must be enrolled in at least 6 hours (UG) / 3 hours (GR) that count toward your degree to be eligible for most aid.

- Awarding will not occur until you have enrolled in your summer coursework.
- Awarding will not occur until your SAP appeal is approved, if necessary.
- Pell Grant, Alternative Loans, Institutional Grants, and some State Aid may not require half-time enrollment.

MAINTAINING FINANCIAL AID ELIGIBILITY

SAP – Satisfactory Academic Progress

	Undergraduate Students	Graduate Students
GPA	2.0	3.0
Completion Rate	75%	67%
Excessive Hours	134%	150%

If Spring 2023 was a warning semester, it may be necessary for you to submit a SAP appeal to continue to receive financial aid.

How do I know if an appeal is necessary?

Check the Status page of your Financial Aid Portal after Spring '23 grades are posted. You will also receive email notification on your student TAMU email the opportunity to appeal.
