

- Seeking New Editorial Board Members -

Apply by September 16 at <https://tx.ag/ApplyToExplorationsBoard>

Explorations: The Texas A&M Undergraduate Journal is an interdisciplinary, student-led, faculty/staff-guided publication dedicated to showcasing undergraduate research and scholarly work. The journal welcomes research, scholarly, creative, and cover art submissions of general interest from any discipline.

The Explorations Board is a community that showcases the most cutting-edge, original, and student-driven scholarship by undergraduates pursuing research experiences at Texas A&M.

The Board works year-round to meet the journal's annual publication schedule and to connect the Texas A&M community to the knowledge being produced by Texas A&M undergraduate researchers.

Board members develop skills in areas such as:

- Leadership
- Public speaking
- Critical thinking
- Time management
- Editing
- Marketing
- Publishing
- Graphic design
- Project management
- Virtual collaboration

Applicants may be interviewed prior to acceptance. New Board member applications will be accepted until September 16, 2026, at
